

Pierre Cardaliaguet is professor at Paris Dauphine University, France. His research interests is primarily in partial differential equations, optimal control and differential games, including Hamilton-Jacobi equations, homogenization and mean field games. He has received his PhD in Mathematics from Paris Dauphine in 1994 and served as professor in Brest University, France, from 2000 to 2010 before joining Paris Dauphine.